Communications Project Manager

Job Description Overview:

The Communications Project Manager is responsible for delivering high quality projects, on time and on budget, through the effective use of project management plans, people and resources. He or she discusses strategies with clients and recommends a variety of programs, including advertising campaigns, direct and/or digital marketing programs, and distributor training programs. Experience in communications and program management—as well as a background in corporate writing and new media content development—is important. Strong interpersonal skills are vital.

Work activities:

Message Development

- Write individual blogs, articles, whitepapers and documents
- A clear and engaging business writing style
- Edit, revise, and review work in response to feedback
- Submit material for publication in the required and expected format
- Network with other writers as well as others involved in a program such as executives, client stakeholders and event organizers
- Critique the work of other writers, including sometimes providing mentoring or coaching
- Manage the business side of writing, including through maintaining financial records, checking contracts and submitting invoices
- Write press releases and prepare information for the media
- Help clients communicate effectively with the public

Research and Planning

- Research the market by reading relevant publications or blogs, staying up to date with writing produced in relevant industries and market sectors
- Select subject matter based on personal or public interest, and work with clients to determine perspectives on topics
- Undertake background research, including desk-based research as well as onsite visits or interviews
- Find, pursue, and maintain knowledge of publication opportunities
- Identify main client groups and audiences and determine the best ways to reach them
- Assist and inform an organization's executives and spokespeople

Project Management

- Designate an appropriate spokesperson or information source for media inquiries

- Maintain detailed timelines, project plans and hours budgeted for project deliverables and key milestones
- Have the flexibility to work within an ever-changing workload while still managing workload by setting, observing, and re-evaluating project priorities often
- Lead internal project status meetings and ongoing project schedule updates
- Manage changes to the project scope, project schedule and project costs using appropriate verification techniques
- Measure project performance using appropriate tools and techniques
- Establish and maintain relationships with third parties/vendors
- Create and maintain comprehensive project documentation

Client Development

- Develop client relationships by participating in strategic initiatives to enhance and sustain programs
- Work with clients to understand their needs and suggest solutions that enhance their business and create opportunities for other agency team members
- Excellent client services skills and a professional demeanor
- Work with client partners to analyze project needs, to help ensure that they fit with resourcing, project objectives and quality standards
- Assist in managing internal resources, staffing existing and internal projects appropriately
- Report and escalate problems to management as needed
- Successfully manage the relationship with the client and all stakeholders
- Perform risk management to minimize project risks

Skills Needed

- Microsoft Office 365 including: Teams, Project, SharePoint, Word, Excel, and Skype for Business
- Microsoft Power BI
- General knowledge of content management and content planning solutions like WordPress, MailChimp, Curata, Contently, Kapost, NewsCred, Spredfast, etc.
- Knowledge of financial services, legal services and information technology industries is a plus, as are project management skills, web analytics capabilities and any prior experience in internal communications or content management.

This new position is part time and could evolve into a full time role depending on client satisfaction and needs. Pay rate will be determined according to your skills and experience.

Team members usually work from their own office locations, though it will be beneficial if you have the ability to join occasional face-to-face meetings with the client team.
